

Wherever you work, whatever your role, you are part of HCA Healthcare — where we improve more lives in more ways.

HCA Healthcare is a comprehensive healthcare network where approximately 294,000 colleagues across approximately 2,300 ambulatory sites of care in 20 states and the United Kingdom are committed to creating a positive impact every day. We're an organization that exists to give people healthier tomorrows. Our scale enables caregivers to deliver high-quality, patient-centered care and gives colleagues numerous opportunities to learn and grow. Every day, we seek to raise the bar higher, not just for ourselves, but for healthcare everywhere.

Scale

~294,000 colleagues

Our Ambulatory Surgery Division operates more than 145 ambulatory and GI surgery centers across the U.S. and U.K.

Our affiliated lines of business

Parallon, HCA Healthcare's full-service revenue cycle management provider, is an industry leader for healthcare revenue cycle management and shared services. With a long track record of operational excellence, Parallon brings extensive knowledge and a broad portfolio of custom solutions to every collaboration. Parallon helps providers to care for and improve the health of their communities by optimizing financial performance, navigating regulatory challenges, utilizing operational best practices, enhancing the patient experience and leveraging the latest technology.

Galen College of Nursing joined HCA Healthcare in 2020, bringing together two leading nursing organizations and creating the country's largest academic practice partnership. This partnership has increased access to education and provided nursing career development opportunities that we believe will positively impact patient care.

HealthTrust is a healthcare performance improvement organization committed to strengthening provider performance and clinical integration by leveraging scale, innovation and operator expertise. Since 1999, HealthTrust has been the supply chain engine supporting the HCA Healthcare enterprise.

Sarah Cannon Research Institute (SCRI) is one of the world's leading oncology research organizations conducting community-based clinical trials. In 2022, HCA Healthcare and McKesson formed an oncology research joint venture combining SCRI and US Oncology Research (USOR) to enhance clinical trial access and availability across the country.

Focused on advancing therapies for patients over the last three decades, SCRI is a leader in drug development. It has conducted more than 650 first-in-human clinical trials since its inception and contributed to pivotal research that has led to the majority of new cancer therapies approved by the FDA today. The combined research network brings together physicians who are actively accruing patients to clinical trials at more than 250 locations in 26 states across the U.S.
